

International
Instructor-led classroom course

NSC Advanced First Aid, CPR & AED

Advanced skills to sustain life

Immediate response to emergency situations is critical. This 16- to 40-hour advanced first aid course will help you recognize and act in an emergency to sustain life.

NSC® Advanced First Aid, CPR & AED is ideal for organizations requiring advanced first aid training or as a college-level course.

This course meets CPR and ECC Guidelines.

Course content

- NSC Basic Life Support for Health Care & Professional Rescuers
- How to control bleeding and manage shock
- Caring for injuries and medical emergencies
- Special situations, including behavioral emergencies, childbirth and remote-location first aid

Course materials

Instructor Resource Kit

- Instructor Manual on CD with test bank
- Course DVD
- Instructional DVD on how to set up the classroom
- Instructor Resource CD with administrative documents
- Student Textbook

Student Textbook

- Full-color illustrations, step-by-step photo sequences and skills presentations, plus statistics and checklists
- Course DVD
- Nationally recognized course completion cards

For more information about all of the NSC® First Aid training programs, visit nsc.org/international, call +1-630-775-2056 for more details.

Become an authorized NSC Instructor

If you have first aid training experience with another provider, you may qualify to migrate your credentials to an authorized NSC instructor. Visit nsc.org/firstaid.

National Safety Council
1121 SPRING LAKE DRIVE
ITASCA, IL 60143-3201 U.S.A.
+1-630-775-2056
NSC.ORG/INTERNATIONAL